Mac Rogers at the Beaufort Art Association Gallery

Mac Rogers is the Beaufort Art Association Gallery's featured artist now through May 11.

Mac says, "I have been blessed over the years with many opportunities to travel and paint." For this exhibit he offers a collection of more than 30 paintings centered on the theme of water.

When asked, he says his "desire is to convey the soothing yet powerful vastness of the seas,

Read more Art