at the Art League's Walter Greer Gallery.

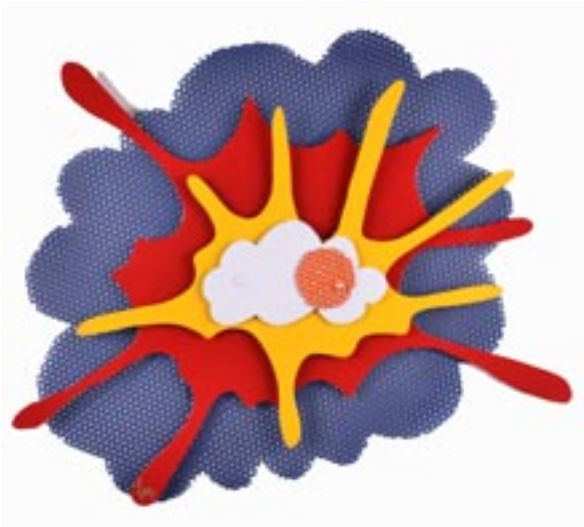

Fizz! Plop! Splat! Sculptor Mark Larkin and painter Ted Jordan bring bold color, wit and comic book-style fun to one of the most joyous art exhibitions that the island has ever seen. Inspired by pop artist Roy Liechtenstein with a dash of Picasso thrown in, Larkin and Jordan play with benday dots, patterns and a primary color palette to create their own 21st century take on these modern masters.

After 35 years in art exile, Mark Larkin returned to his first love and began creating
