

The Society of Bluffton Artists presents "My Visions," a collection of original oil and watercolor paintings by local artist Kenneth Bullard, on display from March 3 through April 5.

For more than 40 years Ken has had a paintbrush in his hand. Born in Connecticut, he is a self-taught artist who continually draws new lessons with each stroke. He works primarily in oils and watercolors. He credits the comic and fantasy work of Frank Frazetta as his biggest influence, opening his eyes to the true meaning of the craft.
