

The Threshold Singers of the Lowcountry host a Community Sing/Concert featuring Heather Houston.

Pat Keown first heard Heather Houston sing when she attended an international gathering of Threshold Singers in California, just over a year ago.

“I was so touched by her voice and her spirit,” says Pat, “and I thought what a gift it would be to bring her here to Beaufort.”

So that’s what Pat and her Threshold Singers of the Lowcountry set about doing. On April 18th, we’ll all be able to experience what Pat calls “the beauty of Heather Houston,” when she comes to the Port Royal Sound Foundation on Lemon Island for a Concert, Community Sing and Blessing of the Water.

Acclaimed singer, recording artist, choral director, voice teacher and vocal empowerment coach, Heather Houston has inspired thousands of people worldwide to

www.HeatherHoustonMusic.com