

Telling His Story

Written by Editor

Wednesday, 04 March 2009 06:45

Cantor Sheldon Feinberg to sign new autobiography in downtown Beaufort

If you've lived in or around Beaufort for any length of time, chances are you know Cantor Sheldon Feinberg. Maybe you've attended his services at Beth Israel Synagogue... or read his book 'Hava Nagila'... or joined him in singing his song about Beautiful Beaufort... or visited his Caboose/Jewish museum in Port Royal. Or maybe you've just enjoyed the pleasure of his company on the porch at Common Ground. Cantor Feinberg has been enriching our community for years, touching many, many lives. We all feel like we know him.

But did you know he was once in the textiles business? That he fought in World War II? That he spent decades as a developer and marketer of toys?

In his new autobiography, With My Head in the Clouds and Feet on the Ground, Cantor Feinberg shares his life story – both “worldly” and spiritual – with humor and grace. Don't miss your chance to meet the charming author (if there's anybody out there who hasn't!) and procure a signed copy. Bay Street Trading Company in downtown Beaufort will host a signing from 1 – 4 pm on Sunday, March 4th. Copies of Cantor Feinberg's book Hava Nagila – a biography of his mentor Moshe Nathanson, creator of that beloved song – will also be available for purchase.

For more information, call 524-2000.