

Duncan Sheik & Meredith Inglesby Come Home for a Great Cause – The Arts Center!

They grew up with the beach as their hometown backdrop, but with the arts as a guiding force in their creative journeys. Both Duncan Sheik and Meredith Inglesby are hometown success stories, having each moved to New York and conquered the Big Apple. Now they're back to celebrate the Arts Center, with a special performance at its Spring Gala, April 6.

After breaking through to great success in the late '90s with his Top 20 single "Barely Breathing," Duncan Sheik spent much of the subsequent decade taking a breather from the usual rock singer/songwriter rituals. His focus was on albums that broke with pop music conventions and, additionally, theatrical musicals like Spring Awakening, the Broadway sensation that won him two Tony Awards and a Grammy. Duncan will be headlining the Gala event, and also performing in a solo concert on April 7 at the Arts Center.

Hilton Head Homecoming

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 26 March 2013 11:10

Read Article Most