

Fire and Rain: Celebrating James Taylor and Carole King

Written by Margaret Evans
Tuesday, 20 March 2018 10:39

The Center for the Arts is proud to present Fire and Rain, a wonderful tribute to prolific singer-songwriters James Taylor and Carole King on Friday, March 30 at 7:30 pm.

Taylor and King dominated the '70s airwaves with their singular vocals and lyrical brilliance. Now, award-winning, Juno-nominated artists Jim Witter and Giselle Sanderson are set to celebrate the timeless influence of these storied performers, whose songs earned them induction into the Songwriters Hall of Fame and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, along with innumerable Grammy Awards. Get ready to ride a wave of emotion as Witter and Sanderson take concertgoers on a nostalgic musical journey with such unsurpassed tunes as "You've Got A Friend," "It's Too Late," "Shower The People," and "Tapestry."

More about the Artists

Jim Witter has been entertaining crowds for over 30 years with his multimedia tributes to

Fire and Rain: Celebrating James Taylor and Carole King

Written by Margaret Evans

Tuesday, 20 March 2018 10:39

www.uschocenterforthearts.com

www.uschocenterforthearts.com